

Etchu Yatsuo

“Owara Kaze no Bon” Live

Experience the timeless beauty of “Owara Kaze no Bon,” a traditional festival that has been cherished in Yatsuo, Toyama for over 300 years. At the Owara Museum, you’ll witness the graceful Ozashiki Owara—an intimate live performance of traditional song and dance—up close and in person.

<2025 Dates & Times>

Date	Reception	Start
May 18th	10:30	11:00
June 15th	13:30	14:00
July 20th	18:30	19:00
August 10th	18:30	19:00
August 24th	13:30	14:00

Venue: Owara Museum
2015-1 Higashimachi, Yatsuo-machi, Toyama City
☎ 076-455-1780

Admission:

- ¥3,000 yen (advance purchase)
- ¥3,300 yen (same-day purchase)

Limited to 30 guests per performance. Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

Important Guidelines:

To ensure an enjoyable and safe experience for all guests:

- Please refrain from bringing infants.
- Tripods and similar equipment are not permitted.

Program Highlights: (Approx. 1 hour)

- Performance Appreciation - Enjoy a live demonstration of the elegant Owara dance and music.
- Dance Introduction - Learn about the meanings and movements behind the traditional choreography.
- Commemorative Photo Session - Take a memorial photo with the performers.

How to Apply:

To reserve your spot, please contact

Tomo Yatsuo ☎ 090-2036-7415

- Mailing Address: (for written inquiries)

Tomo Yatsuo

2204-1 Higashimachi, Yatsuo-machi Toyama City, 〒939-2354

- For inquiries via Instagram or LINE direct message, please click here→ → →

@TOMO_YATSUO